Duties and Nature of Relationship

You, the applicant(s), have applied with us for a residential mortgage loan.

We will submit your loan application to a participating lender which we may from time to time contract upon such terms as you may request or a lender may require. In connection with this mortgage loan, we are acting as an independent contractor and not as your agent. We will enter into separate independent contractor agreements with various lenders. While we will seek to assist you in meeting your financial needs, we do not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest or best terms available in the market.

In connection with this mortgage loan, we are acting as an independent contractor and not as your agent. We will make your loan ourselves. We may either sell the loan to an investor or retain it. (You will receive a separate disclosure as to how we will handle servicing rights on any such loan.) We have a number of established independent contractor relationships with various investors to whom we sell closed loans. We are not an agent for any such investor in connection with the sale of a loan. While we will seek to assist you in meeting your financial needs, we cannot guarantee the lowest or best terms available in the market.

We will be acting as follows:

How we will be compensated

The retail price we offer you – your interest rate, total points, and fees – will include our compensation. In some cases we may be paid all or part of our compensation by you or by the lender or investor. Alternatively, we may be paid a portion of our compensation by both you and the lender. For example, in some cases, if you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay higher up-front points and fees. Also, in some cases, if you would rather pay less up-front, you may be able to pay a higher rate, in which case some or all of my compensation will be paid by the lender. We also may be paid by the lender based on other goods, services, or facilities performed or provided by us to the lender.

Our pricing for your loan is based upon current wholesale options available to us in the secondary market where closed loans are sold. Fees charged directly to you by us may vary depending on the type of loan for which you have applied.

At the time of this disclosure, we are receiving $ _____ in fees. The services for which these fees are being charged include the following:
